Robert Pettit Joins Aurora Diagnostics as Vice President of Revenue Cycle Management

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. – Aurora Diagnostics announced that Robert Pettit has joined the Company as Vice President of Revenue Cycle Management.

“We welcome Robert to Aurora Diagnostics,” said Daniel D. Crowley, Chief Executive Officer. “He joins a strong management team dedicated to supporting Aurora in its mission to create the gold standard for pathology in America. We have 22 high quality regional labs around the country and provide lab services for 54 community hospitals, and others are rapidly joining the Aurora family in this consolidating healthcare environment. Robert will lead the effort to integrate revenue cycle operations and keep us efficient as we grow.”

“This is an exciting time to be at Aurora,” said Mr. Pettit. “The pathology lab business is undergoing change due to efforts to contain healthcare costs, and Aurora is perhaps the best positioned of the national lab companies to lead the resulting consolidation of regional pathology labs. I look forward to being part of the Aurora team and bringing leadership to the important area of revenue cycle management.”

Mr. Pettit was most recently Senior Director of the Revenue Services Project Office at Quest Diagnostics Incorporated, where he held a variety of positions of increasing responsibility in revenue cycle management operations for over 17 years, consistently improving operations in each assignment as his career advanced and he was exposed to many different parts of the business. He holds a Bachelor’s Degree in Business from Albright College in Reading, Pennsylvania.
